The February meeting will be held at Another Broken Egg at the Linkside Conference Center in Sandestin (next to the Ballroom where the Fashion Show will be held). It is time to select our chosen major charity for the 2011-2012 year, and we have invited three local charities to make presentations to the Club. Following the presentations, members will select a charity. We need your vote, so be sure to put this on your calendar! In addition to the charity presentations, a representative from Fisher House will be presented with a donation from DWC, and will give an update on the Fisher House project. Look forward to seeing you all then.

PRESIDENT'S LETTER....Kate Callicotte

Dear Ladies,

Happy Valentine's Day to you all – I hope you will all be inundated with Red Roses!!

We had a great turnout for our lunch at Signature Studios on January 12th and once again Kim and her “gang” found an interesting location for a super lunch. The Program offered by Mary Kay Samouce was terrific and she has graciously offered to let us use some of her jewelry in our Fashion Show. I can hear you all groaning – yes its those words again – Fashion Show. If you haven't already been assigned a task, please contact Peggy Herbig. Her telephone number is in your membership book. She will be delighted to hear from you and will get you signed up for one of our many Committees. March 26th 2011 is only a little over nine (9) weeks away and a lot has to be accomplished between now and then. I have the posters for the Fashion Show and please call me, if you would like some to put in your gym, local library, doctor's office – these are larger than the one that Stephanie and Susan are sending to you via e-mail. Tickets are also on sale. Please contact Georgeia, who is taking care of ticket sales.

Our February lunch program will consist of two subjects. The first will be a presentation from three local charities for us to pick a Charity to support in our club year of 2011/2012 and the second presentation will be our donation of $1,500 to representatives from Fisher House on the Emerald Coast, who will also give us an update on the Fisher House since it opened last August.

I congratulate each and every one of you for helping raise the above amount for Fisher House and am endeavouring to arrange a tour of Fisher House for Club Members – something I think you would all like to see. It really is “home from home”.

Thank you all for your commitment to this wonderful club of ours and I look forward to seeing your smiling faces at our 9th February lunch – details of which you will find elsewhere in this Newsletter.

My warmest regards,

Kate

DESTIN WOMAN'S CLUB
GENERAL MEETING
JANUARY 12, 2011
SIGNATURE GALLERIES

After a pleasant time with friends and browsing the displays in Signature Galleries, Kate Callicotte called the meeting to order at 11:30 a.m., noting that we had a wonderful turnout for the first meeting of the year. She then introduced Mary Kay Samouce, who had a fascinating display of jewelry. She explained the process of "treasure hunting" flea markets and antique shops to find unusual and eye-catching items, and how she disassembled them and remade them into beautiful and unusual jewelry pieces. Members were inspired to look through their own jewelry boxes to see if they had items that could be re-invented and worn again.

Following Mary Kay's presentation, Cindy Posey gave the invocation and a delicious lunch was served.

The business portion of the meeting began with Stephanie Roessler, Fashion Show Publicity Co-Chair, who had distributed information to all members and she asked them to post on their favorite social networking sites. This is free publicity and gets the word out to a large audience. Stephanie will also send the fashion show poster to everyone by e-mail so members can use it. Kate also said that large laminated posters were available for members to display in local businesses. Rhonda Comparin said she would post an invitation on the DWC Facebook page.

Kate went on to say that the minutes of December's meeting had been posted in the Newsletter, and that the Treasurer's Report could be found on the tables.

New members and guests, of which there were two, were warmly welcomed by the Club.

Denise Dobolek, as Membership Chair, said that the January update of the membership book was in the works. The update will include the new Corporate Sponsors. A number of members indicated that they would also like to place ads in the membership book.

There were several January birthdays to celebrate: Wendy Schmutz, Shelia Gradyan, Glenda Jernigan, Pat Parsons, Dorothy Robinson, Margaret McDowell, Susan Frishman, Cindy Posey, and Margie Foutz. Hope you all have wonderful birthdays, ladies.

Sandi McClanahan announced that as part of the "Doctors from the Heart" program, some local doctors will hold a free clinic on February 14th at Destin Commons. They welcomed donations of non-perishable food and other items which will be donated to Harvest House.

Kate then turned the meeting over to Kathy Lynn and Peggy Herbig, as Fashion Show Co-Chairs. Kathy said that everyone was working hard on getting the show organized and things were coming together. The lunch menu had been agreed, and the decorating committee had come up with some ideas that were truly "outside the box". Lynn Lake, who is in charge of the Designer Table said that she was determined that she would make the Designer Table irresistible to bidders. Peggy explained the theory of the Designer Table, which had been introduced by member Julie Foll some years ago, to those members who were unfamiliar with the term. The fashions in the show will be modeled primarily by DWC members, with some children, teenagers and men included. Gaby of Spa 98 had offered to do the make-up for the models.

Georgia had been distributing tickets to members for them to sell, and it was announced that there will be a prize for the member who sells the most tickets by February 15th.

Kathy Lynn said that she still needed volunteers to work at the show, and that every club member was expected to do their bit to make this fundraiser a great success.

There being no other business, the meeting was adjourned at 1:00 p.m.

Respectfully submitted
